

WITHDRAWAL OF U. S. INJUNCTION WILL OPEN WAY FOR ENDING STRIKE

According to Declaration of Gompers—Says Action Taken by Government Was a Grave Wrong and Gross Blunder.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Withdrawal of the injunction by the government will open the way for settlement of the coal strike, Samuel Gompers, president of American Federation of Labor, declared in a statement.

Regarding that the injunction was a grave wrong and blunder, Mr. Gompers said if it were vacated and operators invited to further conference by the union of labor he had "an abiding faith" that a mutually honorable adjustment could be negotiated and effect to an end.

Gompers' statement was issued here from New York and in response to numerous requests for an expression of bringing the coal strike to a speedy end.

His statement follows: "Representatives of newspapers asked me for a statement regarding the coal strike and the first instance, it should be that the demands of the miners, which upon the surface so radical and far-reaching, are by no means so. For years the miners have not received more than a half year's work in working days averaging one hundred and sixty to one hundred and eighty days per year, by days and by employment and then unemployment. The miners simply want a regulation of the work so that coal production employment be regular, than intermittent. If the work is permitted by the operators to work full time the price of coal will come down the price of coal market and this the operators are determined not to permit. The miners' case might be stated by their demand for at least five days of six hours per week, which is really what they are permitted to do at the present time. An understanding of these conditions shows who are responsible for the present situation and the men in 1914 the miners received an increase of twenty cents in the operators raised the price five dollars per ton, the conditions and the life of the miners deteriorated by reason of being no practical advance in wages and their earnings while the cost of living had increased higher and higher.

A further reason for the adoption of this policy, Mr. Phillips wrote was the program of the Bolsheviks to so manipulate the coal supply as to bring about the extinction of the middle classes. "It has seemed altogether inadvisable," said Mr. Phillips, "that food and other necessities of American origin should be allowed to become the means of sustaining such a program of political oppression."

Not unmindful of the distress of many innocent people within the Bolshevik lines as the result of the inability to import food from America to the United States, Mr. Phillips continued still was seeking a solution of the problem of relieving these people. Meantime, he said, provision has been made for the immediate relief of the people in areas freed by current military operations from Bolshevik control. Moreover, the food estimated to be adequate for the relief of Petrograd for nearly one month has been delivered at Viborg, Finland, by the American relief administration and definite arrangements have been made with the United States grain corporation to provide further shipments of flour for this region in the event of its liberation and for the people in the north of Russia, which is under the control of anti-Bolshevik forces.

Mr. Phillips wrote in reply to Senator Wadsworth who had asked why the administration had adopted a policy of non-interference with that part of Russia controlled by the Bolsheviks. "The Russian Bolsheviks," he said, "have availed themselves of every opportunity to initiate in the United States a propaganda aimed to bring about the forcible overthrow of our present form of government. Chairman Wadsworth of the senate military committee has been informed by Assistant Secretary Phillips in a letter made public today at the state department. The Bolsheviks, Mr. Phillips said, have as their disposal large quantities of gold, partly a remnant of the former Russian government and partly a reserve being loaned to the Romanian government and it is considered important not to give them means for commercial transactions to bring this gold into the United States where it could be used to sustain their propaganda of 'violence and anarchy'."

Mr. Phillips said that while there was no blockade of Petrograd so far as the United States was concerned, no licenses for the shipment of goods to Bolshevik Russia were being issued. This policy, he added, could not be continued after the proclamation of peace without additional legislation. A further reason for the adoption of this policy, Mr. Phillips wrote was the program of the Bolsheviks to so manipulate the coal supply as to bring about the extinction of the middle classes. "It has seemed altogether inadvisable," said Mr. Phillips, "that food and other necessities of American origin should be allowed to become the means of sustaining such a program of political oppression."

SPEEDY ACTION ON PEACE PACT PLAN OF LEADERS

Vote on Document Within Next Ten Days Hoped For

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Hope for speedy action on the peace treaty revived today when the senate voted down one amendment proposed to dispose of two more tomorrow and renewed informal discussion of methods to hasten consideration of reservations.

Tonight some of the more optimistic predicted a vote on ratification by the end of the week, while the leaders on both sides thought it likely to come within ten days at the latest.

In the background of all calculations, however, was the possibility of an eleventh hour rally by the treaty's irreconcilable enemies, who have intimated more than once that they were mindful of the opportunity which might be presented to talk off a final roll call until the session of congress ends early in December.

While debate continued today leaders held many conferences and found agreement everywhere except among the irreconcilables. It was said, to bring every possible pressure to bear for early action.

Tomorrow Democratic Leader Hitchcock expects to ask unanimous consent for a sharp limitation of debate, and he believes it will be agreed to.

The amendment disposed of today was one by Republican Leader Lodge to strike from the treaty entirely the Shantung provision. The vote was 41 to 26, the proposal failing by the vote of virtually the same senators who several days ago defeated the committee amendment on that subject.

Part of today's debate was on a motion by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, to strike out article 10 of the league covenant but he withdrew the proposal after suggestions had been advanced for changing the foreign relations committee reservations on the subject to meet his objection.

Election Bulletins

AURORA, Ill., Nov. 4.—The three public policy questions carried by a 5 to 4 vote today in the fourteenth senatorial district in today's state-wide election, although the few women who went to the polls voted almost solidly against them. The country districts also voted against them.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 4.—Frank J. Quinn, Democrat, and Hiram E. Todd, Republican, were elected as constitutional delegates from the eighteenth senatorial district in today's election. The majorities in favor of the three public policy questions were three to one.

DANVILLE, Ill., Nov. 4.—E. B. Cooley, of Danville, and William Stewart, of Paris, Republicans, were elected delegates to the constitutional convention in the twenty-second district today, defeating the two Socialist candidates about two to one.

QUINCY, Ill., Nov. 4.—All three public policy questions carried in Quincy today. The initiative and referendum vote was 1,336 to 566; the gateway vote was 4,687 to 56 and the public ownership vote was 1,830 to 624.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 4.—Public policy questions carried in Springfield about 3 to 1.

WOMEN'S CONGRESS ADOPTS LEGISLATION AGAINST CHILD LABOR Resolution Adopted Unanimously by Delegates at Parley.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Recommendation that all nations enact legislation prohibiting industrial labor by children below the age of sixteen were made today by the international working women's congress in a resolution adopted unanimously. Action on the resolution came after a failure to reach an agreement on only the basic principle in the suggestions offered for legislation concerning maternity benefits and the care of mothers and babies. The resolution also provides that a child to engage in any "hazardous occupation must have completed the elementary school, and have been declared physically fit by a medical officer. Provision would be made in the constitution recommended by the delegates that no one less than 18 years may work in a mine or a quarry and in all work the day shall be shorter for the boy between 16 and 18 than for adults, while no boy may be given night work.

The congress also voted for legislation to prohibit the employment of minors in dangerous occupations which might retard their physical development with insistence on the desirability of regularly made physical inspections. The British delegate submitted a plan to make the congress a permanent organization with affiliation with organizations of a Democratic international character containing a "substantial proportion" of women members. The plan stipulates that only women may sit in the joint committee of affiliation. Delegates to future session of the congress under the British plan which will be discussed tomorrow will be on the basis of one to every 50,000 affiliated paying members with a minimum of two delegates for each country. Each country would have five votes with one additional vote for every additional 50,000 members. The plan provides for biennial meetings at the same time and place as the league of nations labor congress.

PEORIA COAL TRUCK DRIVERS LAID OFF PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 4.—More than 100 wagon and automobile truck drivers employed by local retail coal dealers were laid off at noon today when supplies of coal were exhausted. With the railroad administration holding all cars on track and distribution limited, the dealers had nothing for their men to do. With the county's supply of coal only sufficient to last another day, Sheriff Lewis Hines announced this morning that he proposed, if necessary, to seize coal anywhere he found it in order to keep the jail warm and prevent suffering among his prisoners.

REORGANIZE GERMAN CLUB Chicago, Nov. 4.—The German club at the University of Chicago, abandoned during the world war, today was in the process of being revived. Fourteen men and women of the school met yesterday and started an organization. The club's aim is to glean the best from German language, art, literature and music.

SUPPOSED BOMB PROVED HARMLESS Washington, Nov. 4.—The supposed bomb which Attorney General Palmer received yesterday found it in a bottle of harmless liquid. Officials dismissed the matter as the work of a crank.

KENTUCKY AND OHIO VOTE TO REMAIN "DRY"

Only States in Which Prohibition Was a Direct Issue.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Ohio and Kentucky, the only two states holding elections yesterday in which prohibition was a direct issue, both carried themselves in the army of voluntary abstinence on the face of partial returns tabulated at midnight.

With more than half of the state reported, Secretary of State Smith predicted it would be found Ohio had voted "dry" on all four prohibition proposals submitted to the voters and that the majorities would approximate 75,000. One of these proposals was offered in the form of referendum on the legislature's action in ratifying the 17th amendment to the federal constitution. Another proposal also dealt with the prohibition act adopted by the state legislature. The other two proposals were constitutional amendments touching on prohibition. In Kentucky it appeared that the state wide prohibition act had been carried by a large majority.

New Jersey Election In New Jersey which is one of five states holding gubernatorial elections, prohibition was an indirect issue. Despite the assertion of State Comptroller Newton A. K. Bugee, Republican candidate for governor, that prohibition was an accomplished fact because it is incorporated in the federal constitution, Senator Edward L. Edwards, the Democratic candidate, made it an issue by declaring that he will use all the legal machinery of the state to make New Jersey "as wet as the Atlantic ocean."

While the result of the New Jersey gubernatorial election was in doubt early today Edwards was leading his opponent by 127 votes. This lead, however, was being increased sharply as returns poured in from Democratic strongholds, the last to report.

Coolidge Gets Big Majority. Running on a "law and order" issue, Governor Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts opposed by the Central Labor Union because of his stand on Boston police strike, carried his Democratic opponent, Richard H. Long, down to overwhelming defeat, with an indicated plurality of more than 120,000.

Kentucky Goes to G. O. P. Kentucky was another state to elect a Republican governor. Edwin P. Morrow received a majority estimated at 150,000 to 200,000 over Governor James D. Black.

Democrats Win in Mississippi In Mississippi the Democrats facing only a Socialist ticket, won a victory by a plurality of approximately 50,000, sending Lee M. Russell, Lieutenant Governor, to the governor's chair. At midnight it was not known whether Mayor and his associates as its governor Attorney General Albert C. Ritchie, Democrat, or Harry W. Nice, his Republican opponent. With few returns tabulated except in Baltimore, where the count was only half completed, Ritchie was leading about 1,000.

Hearst Fights Tammany Although an off-year in New York politics a bitter contest was waged for the offices appearing on the ballot. Spirit was lent to the campaign by the stand taken by the Hearst newspapers. Swinging their support to the Republican ticket they waged war on Tammany's nominees. Tammany appeared to have suffered marked defeat.

Particular interest attached to the victory won by Lieutenant Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who, following his father into public life, won a seat in the assembly from Nassau county by sending down to defeat Elias Raff an A. R. F. private and tailor's boy.

NO BREAK IN SIGHT OF NATION-WIDE STRIKE OF SOFT COAL MINERS

Each Side Waiting for the Other to Make First Break Which Might Lead to Arbitration of Differences.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—At the end of the fourth day of the soft coal strike there had been no break or weakening on the part of either the miners or the operators.

There were indications that each was willing to negotiate but each seemed determined that the other should surrender some point before diplomatic relations should be resumed. The chiefs of organized labor, particularly Samuel Gompers, suggested that the government should dissolve its injunction against the mine workers officials and that such a move would indicate that the way was open to peace. The mine operators maintained their attitude that the strike must be called off before negotiations could be opened.

The public today in some sections had begun to feel the effect of the strike in a serious measure. Montana was especially distressed, the strike having closed schools in Billings, while descriptions of the situation in the state indicated that many households were on the verge of suffering. Coal bins of many homes were empty, dispatches said, and many farmers in the dry farming regions were without fuel. In the southwest many consumers had no coal, but the regional coal committee announced today they would be given two weeks supply. St. Louis dealers declared they were almost out of coal and petitioned the government to return to authority the former state fuel administrator of Missouri.

There was little change in the situation today. Among the announcements tonight was one from Thomas Brewster, chairman of the coal operators' scale committee at St. Louis, that the majority of operators may file damage suits against the United Mine Workers of America, alleging breach of contract. While the mine workers' body decided that the war was over and their contract with the mine owners expired, the operators have maintained that the war never has been officially terminated and the strike was a contract violation. Such suits would be filed by operators individually and not by the operators' association, Mr. Brewster said. Military control by federal troops in Wyoming and New Mexico coal fields continued today without special incident and without further federal troop movements.

Governor Heart of Washington, tonight ordered members of the national guard to hold themselves in readiness for mobilization. Utah miners for the most part continued at work according to United States District Attorney Ray. That was the only state where mine owners have failed to obey the strike order.

About the only change in the mine situation were reports from West Virginia. Operators reported four mines in the unionized, new River district were in operation. Fifteen were reported open yesterday. One union leader reported that two mines in the unorganized Guan field were closed today by sympathetic strikers after the operators had offered the men $10 a day to continue at work.

Indiana may have to return to lightless nights, as in wartime, public utility operators believe, because of the coal shortage. Pittsburgh operators state tonight that thousands of tons of freshly mined coal are in or near Pittsburgh.

The only violence in that of a minor character reported today was a fight between strikers and mine guards in Somerset county, Pennsylvania. There were no casualties. The war department acted today to insure coal for military camps. Camp Grant at Rockford, Ill., has a six weeks supply of 11,000 tons, it was ascertained today.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 4.—Leaders of the strike of bituminous coal miners in Illinois marked time here today while awaiting developments in the national situation complicated by the federal

THIRD TERMS

Carranza has announced that he will not be a candidate for a third term in Mexico. Possibly this statement will help to settle conditions, but the chances are that it will add to Mexican turbulence, as the number of aspirants to succeed Carranza increases. All of which reminds that President Wilson has not declared himself on the third term proposition.

PUTTING THE HEART IN

"A heart and a dollar" is the slogan of the Red Cross membership roll call. A great slogan it is, emphasizing in such an emphatic way that this is not merely a campaign of money—that the Red Cross organization realizes that money without the heart interest of the people behind it will not long avail. Great humanitarian work deals with more than dollars.

THAT GREATEST PARADE

The Chambrade club has planned for a musical observance of armistice day Nov. 11. It is proposed to have here a patriotic public sing at 11 o'clock on the first anniversary of that eventful day. The Chambrade club in this proposal is joining in a most commendable country-wide movement. In some cities there will be great parades and in all of them community singing will be featured. No greater or better plan for a general observance could be outlined.

And speaking of parades brings to mind the recollection of the one in Jacksonville on armistice day. No matter how much planning be done, that parade cannot be duplicated. It was such a spontaneous expression of genuine joy that it could not be duplicated. Without special leadership, without special planning, that great parade sprang into being. It came from the hearts of the people without a discordant note. And it was the prevailing spirit that made that parade great.

BUSINESS BOOMING

Government stores continue to be established in the cities. The patronage especially for wearing apparel and supplies of that kind is very active and the prices are said to be much lower than those available in the regular retail stores. But notwithstanding the opening of all these establishments, business seems to continue in just about the same general way in the regular business houses. That statement is not exactly true for instead of "in the regular way" business in all lines is booming.

MINE STRIKE SETTLEMENT SEEMS NEAR

It looks very hopeful now that an early settlement of the mine strike may come. The miners' officers are giving some indication of willingness to arbitrate and the operators are already of that mind. This is surely the sensible course to pursue, for every sane man knows that sooner or later this strike question must be submitted to arbitration. Neither side is going to make an unconditional surrender and the inevitable course. The longer it is deferred the greater the loss to all parties concerned.

LABOR IN ENGLAND

Labor in England may be paid much less than in America, as used to be the report, but some commodities there are even higher than the U. S. It is said that a $15 price for shoes of the finer grades is not an uncommon thing. One of the strange things about the war seems to be that even a country which suffered enormous war time expenditures shares in it.

Many millionaires were created in England thru war profits and they are now spending their money in the development of lands that had long needed reclaiming and in other enterprises of like importance. It may be that the condition of the wage-workers in England can no longer be held up as a matter of comparison for the American workman—for him to consider and be happy.

PLENTY AND DISSATISFACTION

"I have noticed," said a Jacksonville business man yesterday, "that everybody who comes into my place of business seems to have money. The customer, no matter how he is clad, when his purse is opened nearly always discloses a roll of bills of some denomination. More people are paying cash than ever before. And yet, with all this money in circulation, there is a great period of unrest and vast numbers of workers seem to be dissatisfied and are looking for still higher wages."

There is a lot of truth in the statement and it must be admitted that much of this unrest is the result of contagion. For the most part people are living better than they ever did before, with more comforts and luxuries. But at the same time there are a greater number dissatisfied with their lot.

ELECTION RESULTS

George A. Wheeler, who was elected county commissioner on the Republican ticket Tuesday, may well feel gratified over the very substantial majority given him. In an off year election and a three-cornered contest it is certainly to the credit of the successful candidate that he could poll a vote which gave him a majority of 422.

Mr. Sample, the Democratic candidate, is a man who has the respect and good will of those who know him well and no doubt Mr. Magill inherited both friendships and enmities from his term of service on the county board. Mr. Wheeler as stated previously in these columns, is a successful farmer and business man, and there are reasons to expect that he will seek to apply business principles to the important affairs of the county.

Mr. Conkling, who is one of the elected delegates to the constitutional convention, is a lawyer of wide experience and the highest standing. Mr. Paddock is well versed in the affairs of the state and this district is fortunate in having chosen them as representatives at the convention!

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

The Crisis

The crisis of a year ago looks flabby, now its days are over; but, oh, what fits we used to throw when that cheap crisis had the floor! We viewed that crisis with alarm, it was a frightful thing to see, it couldn't fail to wound and harm the bulwarks of our liberty. It crised around a day or two, and then abjectly looped the loops; another crisis loomed in view and called for walls and mauls and whips. I've seen a hundred crises come and go; I've seen my neighbors stricken dumb by threats of coming doom and woe. And still our country jogs along, and finds release from every plight; and if a dozen things are wrong, about a million things are right. When a crisis blows its trump, the rabbit-hearted tear their hair, and say we're headed for the dump, in haste—but I refuse to scare. I've heard the cry of "Wolf so long, I look on wolves as honest men; brutes; no crises can disturb the song of sane and joyous souled gals. Bring your crises, one by one or trot them forth in groups of eight; the optimist will take his gun, and make the blamed things pull their freight."

BEGUN AT LAST.

Simeon Fernandes and Sons have begun work on the foundation for the monument in the central park. They have removed the welcome arch to the premises of Charles DeSilva and have begun work in earnest. They have acted fairly in the matter. Two years ago they and the monument association were ready to go to work but were held back by the county board for reasons well understood.

A year ago they had the material again on hand and wanted to go to work but local U. S. officials deemed it their duty to hold up the work under the war time material savings act and another year was lost. The contractors are busily engaged on the other part but now cannot have it in shape to erect before spring so Messrs. Fernandes rightly said that they didn't want to sacrifice good paying jobs for this which has been cut down by increased cost of help and material. All that was asked of them was to get the foundation in this fall so it would be settling all right and this they will do.

They say they will, if necessary, protect the green work with canvas and manure and see that it is done right and with the aid of Architect Pierson and the oversight of W. H. Jordan, all precautions are taken to have all right still living may expect to see the beautiful monument they have been wanting so long.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S RED CROSS PROCLAMATION

As President of the United States and as President of the American Red Cross I recommend and urge a generous response to the Third Red Cross Roll Call which opens on November the second with the observance of Red Cross Sunday and appropriately closes on November the eleventh the first anniversary of the signing of the Armistice.

Twenty million adults joined the Red Cross during the war, prompted by a patriotic desire to render service to their country and to the cause for which the United States was engaged in war. Our patriotism should stand the test of peace as well as the test of war, and it is an intelligent patriotic program which the Red Cross proposes, a continuation of service to our soldiers and sailors who look to it for many things, and a transference to the problems of peace at home of the experience and methods which it acquired during the war.

It is on membership more than money contributions that the stress of the present campaign is laid, for the Red Cross seeks to associate the people in welfare work throughout the land, especially in those communities where neither official nor unofficial provision has been made for adequate public health and social service.

It is in the spirit of democracy that the people should undertake their own welfare activities, and the National Red Cross wisely intends to exert upon the community action a stimulating and coordinating influence and to place the energies of the organization behind all sound public health and welfare agencies.

The American Red Cross does not purpose indefinite prolongation of its relief work abroad, a policy which would lay an unjust burden upon our own people and tend to undermine the self-reliance of the peoples relieved, but there is a necessary work of completion to be performed before the American Red Cross can honorably withdraw from Europe. The Congress of the United States has imposed upon the Red Cross a continuing responsibility abroad by authorizing the Secretary of War to transfer to the American Red Cross such surplus army medical supplies and supplementary and dietary food stuffs now in Europe as shall not be required by the Army, to be used by the Red Cross to relieve the distress which continues in certain countries of Europe as a result of the war.

To finance these operations, to conduct work which was begun during the war, and to carry out some comparatively inexpensive constructive plans for assisting peoples in eastern Europe to develop their own welfare organizations, the American Red Cross requires, in addition to membership fees, a sum of money small in comparison with the gifts poured into its treasury by our generous people during the war.

Both the greater enduring domestic program and the lesser temporary foreign program of the Red Cross deserve enthusiastic support, and I venture to hope that its peace-time membership will exceed rather than fall below its impressive war-membership.

WILL BURY MAJOR HOPKINS AT URBANA

A telegram received yesterday by Major Carl E. Black from Dean Davenport of the University of Illinois, stated that the funeral of Major Hopkins will be held at the auditorium of the University of Illinois next Friday afternoon. It will be remembered that Major Hopkins, who was a member of the Red Cross commission to Greece, died a few weeks ago at the hospital in Gibraltar. The announcement of the funeral indicates that the remains have reached New York.

Why is it that of two persons of the same age responsibilities you'll find one who seems young buoyantly healthy, while the other just feels his thru life, ailing, complaining and growing old rapidly?

The difference lies in nerve energy. One serves it—the other dissipates it through faulty nerve action.

Normal nerve action, which brings about a normal distribution of energy in the body, is the basis of health. Those who are not always at their best, thoroughly well, virile, energetic, strong, healthy and ambitious, should let the Chiropactor, by scientific adjustment of the spine, correct faulty nerve action. Then Nature, by normal distribution of energy, can revitalize and regenerate every part of the body to the normal state that results invariably in greater material benefit.

CHIROPRACTIC THE BETTER WAY TO HEALTH

will help everyone, those who think they are in fit shape well as those who are not. Certainly Chiropactic (KIPRAK-TIC) never harmed anyone, but it has done thousands an immense amount of good. Investigate it. See what means to enjoy real natural health and vigor.

SERGEANT TRAHEY HAD TO SPLIT HIS VOTE

County Commissioners Ran One of Voting District Lines Thru
His Residence—Jim Did Not Know How to Split His Vote.

Sergeant James Trahey, the popular night desk man at the police station was in a quandry
Tuesday.
When the county commissioners in their wisdom made the new voting districts in the county they ran the line of No. 16 along Franklin and Mulberry streets and thence on an imaginary line to the Chicago & Alton railroad.
This line cut Sergeant Trahey's house in two and the sergeant was so busy trying to find out where he voted that he almost lost his franchise. The first thing Mr.
Trahey is going to ask Mr. Wheeler to do is to put him together again by taking the line of the voting district out of his house.

WHAT ARE SECONDS?
“Seconds” is a term used to denote tires that for one of the reasons mentioned below do not carry the manufacturer's regular mileage guarantee. These reasons are:
(1) Over production in certain sizes.
(2) Change of tread.
(3) Change of color.
(4) Slight surface blemishes.
The fact that a tire is stamped “second” does not mean that it will not give its original guaranteed mileage. The tires we sell as seconds can safely be sold with the manufacturer's original guarantee.

We Have on Hand a Limited Number of Republic-Grande Cord Tires Special 32x4 . . . $28.00

While these tires are classed as seconds they are guaranteed to be absolutely brand new, name and serial number appearing on each tire, and free from all defects. Here is your chance for a cord tire at less than fabric prices. 214-212 East Court Street. Bell Phone 640, Ill. 1640

Do you read the adds in your paper? if you don't you are losing out. its lots of fun to read an add and then try to figure out if the fellow that wrote it really means what he says. the other day i read one about a bank, not a faro or sand but a real bank where they juggle the coin of the realm and believe me bill by the time I real that add the second time i had decided to take the thirty cents i got left and put it in that bank but I haven't done so yet cause i am still tryin to figure out if they really meant it. you see bill i am a little skeptical about this add business.

most of the advertisirs are square enough but sometimes the gink that writes the adds lets his pen slip—never the less bill it pays to advertise.

Yours truly,
JACK.

Social Events

Ladies of Lynnvillle M. E. Church Gave Duck Dinner.
The Ladies Aid Society of Lynnvillle M. E. church gave a duck dinner Tuesday which was a largely attended. In the evening the ladies gave an oyster and ice cream supper. Both were very successful.

Women of Woodson Christian Church Served Burgoo.
The women of Woodson Christian church served burgoo soup chicken sandwiches, pie and coffee Tuesday. They were liberaly patronized and realized a goodly sum to be used for church purposes.

Standard Bearers of Brooklyn Meet.
The members of the Standard Bearers of Brooklyn church met at the home of Miss Estelle Scholfield on South Clay avenue Tuesday evening. The usual devotional program was carried out after which the members of the society enjoyed a social hour. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Strawn's Crossing Club Entertained by Mrs. Foster.
Mrs. Frank Foster entertained the Strawn's Crossing club Tuesday afternoon. There was a good attendance of members and several visitors. In the absence of the president Mrs. Thompson presided. Mrs. William Cleary gave a talk on her trip thru the west and also showed some excellent views she obtained while there. The club will meet Thursday, November 14, with Mrs. Al Foster to sew for the Social Service League. The hostess served refreshments during the social hour that followed. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. P. C. Maddox Tuesday, November 18.

Sunday School Class Party at Home of Mrs. Gunn.
The Sunday School class of Rev. E. B. Landis of Westminster church enjoyed a weiner roast and moonlight party at the home of Mrs. John T. Gunn, west of the city, Tuesday evening. There are about fifty in the class and forty were present, the trip being made by automobile. After the weiner roast the company passed some time playing moonlight games. The success of the party was largely due to the efforts of Miss Mattie Reisch, the class president, and Miss Habel McCormick, chairman of the social committee.

Birthday Party for Dorothy M. Jones.
Mrs. O. H. White of 702 North Main street gave a birthday party recently in honor of the fifth birthday of her granddaughter, Little Dorothy M. Jones. The children spent the time playing games, prizes being won by John Ragan and Margaret Wood. Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. C. W. Ragan and Mrs. O. H. White. Little Dorothy received many useful gifts and the guests departed wishing her many more happy birthdays. Those present were: Emma Jane and John Ragan, Eleanor and Margaret Woods, Mabel Dickerson, Mary Norris, Harold Burkery, Edward Konrad, Raymond Jones, Robert Jones.

ILLINOIS MOTHERS SHOULD HEED THIS ADVICE
Rock Island, Ill.:—“I can highly recommend ‘Favorite Prescription’ to women in need of a special tonic. I was very frail and delicate the first two years of my married life, and it was Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription that restored me to health and strength.”—Mrs. S. A. SMITH, 240 6th Ave.

Quincy, Ill.:—“When I felt that I needed a tonic, I used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I was simply tired out and didn't feel good. I just felt that I must have a tonic which was good for women. I took about two bottles of ‘Favorite Prescription’ and I made me feel much better. I shall always praise it because it helped me.”—Mrs. JULIA CURTIS, 324 No. Fifth St.

Weak or Nervous
Quincy, Ill.:—“I can highly recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to a woman who are run-down, weak or nervous. It is a splendid tonic as I know by my own personal experience, and I would never hesitate a moment in taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in preference to all other medicine.”—Mrs. C. ZERNICK, 159 Kimball St.

Jacet, Ill.:—“From the time my children were small I have been recommending Dr. Pierce's Cough Syrup. The fact that it contains neither opiates nor harmful drugs, combined with the prompt relief it gives little folks when they become choked up with coughs and colds, is my reason for recommending it so highly. I would not give any other cough syrup to my children.”—Mrs. REGINA ROSEN, 750 S. Ottawa St.

Young People's Classes Hold Party.
A joint social of the young women's and the young men's classes of the State street Sunday School was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Floreth on West College avenue. Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel is the teacher of the young women's class and J. S. Findley is Bible school instructor for the young men. The young people assembled at eight o'clock and the evening was most enjoyably spent in games, with contests and with music. Miss Cora Cherry was chairman of the entertainment committee, while Felix Farrell, Jr., was chairman of the committee on refreshments. There were thirty-five or forty of the members of the two classes present during the evening and all agreed that the gathering was a most pleasant one. At a late hour refreshments were served.

Queen Esther Circle of Centenary Meets.
Members of the Queen Esther circle of Centenary church held a regular meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Ruth Patterson, 664 South Diamond street. In the absence of the president, Miss Clara Smith, the vice president, Miss Ruth Patterson, was in the chair. There was only a fair attendance. The leader of the evening was Miss Helen Ferreira and a profitable program was carried out. The hostesses of the evening were Misses Ruth Patterson, Florence Cranwell and during the evening delicious refreshments were served. Missionary Society Held Open Meeting.
The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Grace church enjoyed an open meeting in the church parlors on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Tillman Stout presided and Rev. Tull had charge of the Devotional period.

The regular program was in charge of Mrs. Nelson.

Reports from the branch meeting at Decatur were given by Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Perrin, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. Baxter, Mrs. John Reeve.

The officers of the Society were hostesses and many guests from other church societies were present. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

A delightful vocal solo was given by Mrs. Cantasey.

East Side Tuesday Club.
The East Side Tuesday club met in regular session Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. R. Bradley, 223 West College avenue. Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel gave a most interesting and profitable address on “Brazil and Its Resources,” giving a graphic description of the country including the beautiful birds and trees and making especial mention of the personality and great intellectual powers of the Brazilians. The address was followed by a most enjoyable social hour.

The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. L. B. Turner, 120 North Prairie street, November 18th.

34,000 SPANISH WORKERS STRIKE
Madrid, Nov. 4.—(Havas).—Thirty-four thousand workers were unemployed as a result of the first day of the lock-out in Barcelona. The day passed without incident. In the immediate region outside Barcelona a majority of the factories are in operation.

Injunction aimed against direction of the strike by officials.
There was no move on the part of any Illinois miners to return to work, according to Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois district, who attached no significance to the statement of John L. Lewis, acting national president of the miners, that “the machinery of the joint system of bargaining in the mining industry is still intact.”
“The national situation stands just as it has from the first,” said Farrington, who is chairman of the international scale committee. “We have always been willing to negotiate a wage agreement. The difficulty, he said, lay in the fact that operators insisted on extending the existing agreement until March 31, 1920.”
“The miners concluded the present contract had expired.”
The operators freely on the strike situation after coming from the closing session of a two day meeting of the Illinois executive board. Board members corroborated his statement that strike affairs had not been confronted in the board conferences which were said to have dealt with routine business.
The federal restraining order will not materially change the strike situation for a considerable period of time, even though it should be made permanent next Saturday when a hearing is to be had at Indianapolis, was the opinion of President Farrington who said strike benefits would not be available under the terms of the miners international constitution until the strike had been in progress four weeks.

KENTUCKY AND OHIO VOTE TO REMAIN “DRY”
Returns From Kentucky.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—Edwin P. Morrow, Republican, today was elected governor of Kentucky, over Governor James D. Black, Democrat, by a large majority.
Morrow's majority is estimated at from 15,000 to 20,000. Haynes Carter, personal manager for Governor Black conceded Black's defeat by from 8,000 to 10,000.
Unofficial returns from Eastern Kentucky where it was expected that the Democratic nominee would out normal Republican majorities showed Morrow holding his own.
In the western end of the state there was a considerable falling off of Democratic normal majorities, while in Jefferson county publican candidate not only over-turned a majority of 4,000 for Stanley, Democrat, two years ago, but turned it into a Republican victory by approximately 9,000.

EELER WON WITH ASE IN COUNTY RACE

Commissioner by Plural of 422—Messrs Conkling and Paddock Elected to Represent District to Constitutional Convention—Result on Public Policy Questions in Doubt.

The vote cast in the election yesterday was much heavier than in any other year. The contest for candidates for county commissioner was the most important of the day. The election was a larger understanding of the importance of selecting the delegates to the constitutional convention. Some interest also was shown in the questions of public policy, though not as much as in the election of the commissioner.

SPRINGFIELD VOTES BONDS FOR LIGHT PLANT

Vote to Issue $400,000 Worth of Bonds for Municipal Light Plant By Vote of 4 to 1.

Springfield, Nov. 4.—(Special.)—Springfield voters at the election today by a vote of 4 to 1 ordered the issue of $400,000 worth of bonds for building a municipal light plant.

The question was of greater interest to Springfield residents than any of the public policy questions or the selection of delegates to the constitutional convention.

For some years there has been a bitter battle waged between Commissioner Spaulding at the head of the light and water departments of the city and the utilities company. The election today was a vindication of the policy of Commissioner Spaulding in the conduct of the city departments in his charge.

PAPERS IN MURDER CASE FILED HERE

Horace Reddish and John W. Mackelton of Jersey County Will Answer Murder Charge.

In the circuit court yesterday documents in the people's cases against Horace A. Reddish and John W. Mackelton, charged with murder, were filed. Both men will be tried here for the killing of Stephen M. Reddish, and his colored servant, Rachel Cisco. The documents, transcribed from the records of Jersey county, are very voluminous and there are two cases against each of the defendants.

The crime with which the men are charged was committed at Jerseyville April 30, 1919. Stephen Reddish, who was one of the wealthiest men of Jersey county, was found dead at his home the day following the commission of the crime. The colored servant was also found dead in her room, both man and woman having come to their deaths from gunshot wounds.

Paul M. Hamilton is the state's attorney of Jersey county and it was he who filed the papers yesterday in the Morgan county circuit court. It will be remembered that two weeks ago Judge Norman Jones granted a change of venue to this county after extensive showing had been made that it would not be possible to secure an impartial jury in Jersey county.

Messrs. Conkling and Paddock Won by Wide Majorities—Springfield People Strong for Municipal Light Plant.

With all of the voting districts of Morgan county heard from and 93 out of 96 districts in Sangamon county, the vote on delegates to the constitutional convention is as follows:

Morgan County
Conkling (Rep.)	1997
Paddock (Rep.)	1990
Stevens (Dem.)	1538
Nelms (Dem.)	1471
Sangamon County
Conkling (Rep.)	3707
Paddock (Rep.)	3179
Stevens (Dem.)	2636
Nelms (Dem.)	1726
McDonald (Labor)	2079

District Totals
Conkling 5704
Paddock 5169
Stevens 4224
Nelms 3197
In this county Mr. McDonald polled a very light vote and the exact record is not available.
In Springfield proper the people voted on the question of issuing bonds in the amount of $400,000 for the erection of a municipal light plant and the proposition carried by a vote of four to one.

Deaths

Griswold.
Mrs. Eliza Griswold of Springfield died at Maplecrest sanatorium at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning, aged 79 years. The remains were removed to the mortuary of John C. Reynolds and prepared for burial and were sent to Springfield Tuesday evening where services will be held and interment made.

Antrobus.
Word was received Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Pearl Antrobus, which occurred at her home in Beardstown, Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock.
Deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Saguil Wild of near Murrayville, and was born April 2, 1894. She was united in marriage to Turner Antrobus of Chapin in 1916.
She is survived by her husband, one son, her parents and three sisters and three brothers: Mrs. Floyd Suiter, Misses Esther and Isabel Wild, Edward T. Samuel, and George Wild.
The remains will be taken to Murrayville where funeral services will be held from Murrayville M. E. church Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mauck
Death came Tuesday evening to Ruth Ermina and Priscilla Evelyn, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Mauck. The children were born Saturday and they were so frail that from the first it was feared that they could not long survive. Monday they seemed stronger and the physician and family were more hopeful, but a serious condition developed rapidly late Tuesday afternoon and both died about 7 o'clock. The remains will be taken to Junction City, Kansas, today, where brief funeral services will be held.

GOOD AUDIENCE TUESDAY NIGHT

Evangelist Yule Preaches Strong Sermon—Four Young People Join Church.

There was another good audience Tuesday night at the special revival meeting at the First Baptist church. A fine spirit was manifest throughout the services. A strong and helpful gospel message was given by Evangelist Yule from Acts 16-30, "What must I do to be saved?"

Salvation and its plan was stated and fully explained. Two great doctrines, Repentance and Faith, were emphasized as necessary steps into the Kingdom of God. Striking and helpful illustrations were given.

Four young people came forward making the good confession and were given the hand of greeting by the entire audience. There was one by restoration in the afternoon meeting.

This is the evangelist's second week and the time is rapidly passing. Sunday will be positively the evangelist's last day.

Afternoon services Wednesday and Friday at 3 p. m.

RETURNS FROM VISIT

Miss Ruth Teft of the Woodworth 5 & 10 Cent store has returned from a visit with friends in Springfield.

SUPERINTENDENTS HOLD INFORMAL DISCUSSION

Conference at Dunlap Hotel Tuesday Evening Well Attended—S. S. Rally Day Nov. 23rd.

Sunday school superintendents of the various churches of the city met at the Dunlap hotel last evening at 6:15 o'clock to enjoy a banquet and conference. Following the dinner Chairman C. L. Mathis called the meeting to order and during the evening an informal discussion of ways and means of bringing the Sunday schools of the city up to the standard as defined by the International Sunday School Association was held. It was agreed to make Jacksonville as near as possible by next June when the state convention will be held in this city. It was also agreed to have a rally day for the Sunday schools of the city on Sunday, Nov. 23, at which time a united effort would be made to secure a large attendance. For this effort a committee was appointed to formulate definite plans to be done in the way of a program for each of the schools. The committee as named is made up of Dr. Kopperl, A. D. Fairbank, and Thomas Hopper.

The officers of the Superintendents' association are C. L. Mathis, chairman and J. S. Findley, secretary. Other superintendents who were present at the meeting last evening were: T. M. Tomlinson of State Street church, T. V. Hopper of Grace M. E. church, A. D. Fairbank of Congregational church, Dr. G. H. Kopperl of the Baptist church, A. C. Metcalf of Centenary church, W. J. Brady of Westminster church, and J. G. Ames of Episcopal church.

RED CROSS WORKERS SPENT BUSY DAY

More Than One Hundred Were at Work—Met with Fine Response.

Tuesday was a busy day for the Red Cross workers in Jacksonville. Over one hundred solicitors were at work in the city and large areas were rapidly covered.

It is the intention of the campaign committee to complete the work by Saturday night of this week and for this reason very few of the workers reported to headquarters last night, preferring to spend the time canvassing. In the business section several men solicitors were busy Tuesday morning with the result that the following business houses were reported 100 per cent last night.

Hopper & Sons.
Rabjohn & Reid.
Jacksonville Ry. & Light Co.
Woolworth 5 and 10 cent store.
Schram & Buhrman.
J. F. Claus Oakland Co.
Zahn's Garage.
G. A. Sieber's.
The Farm Press.
Hatfield Produce Co.

Mrs. J. W. Clary, captain in the Second ward, reported the high school and David Prince school both 100 per cent. Mrs. W. E. Day, captain in the First reported the same for the Jefferson school.

It is expected that by this evening more complete reports will have been made and reports will also likely come in from the county workers by that time.

State Street church members and friends kindly note that there will be no Wednesday evening service, but all are urged to attend the new era institute on Thursday.

TO CLOSE ESTATE
In the circuit court yesterday the Farmers State Bank and Trust Co., by Wilson & Butler, as attorneys, filed a petition in the estate of Jane Ann Middleton. The purpose of the document is merely to provide the way for the proper settlement of the estate.

JOSEPH VILT LEAPS TO DEATH UNDER TRAIN

Jacksonville State Hospital Patient Instantly Killed When He Leaps Under Wabash Train—Body is Horribly Mangled.

Joseph Vilt, a patient at Jacksonville State Hospital leaped to instant death under an eastbound Wabash train about 9:10 o'clock Tuesday morning. The body was mangled almost beyond recognition.

Vilt was working with a gang of patients unloading sand from a Wabash car when the tragedy occurred. The men were in charge of attendant Bert Lumsden. When the train approached and whistled for the North Clay avenue crossing, Vilt suddenly jumped from the car. Lumsden saw his intention and tried to catch him but was unsuccessful. Vilt landed on the track directly in front of the approaching train and was ground to death beneath the wheels.

The accident was witnessed by Patrick Riley, flagman at the North East street crossing. It was the first man killed in that locality since Mr. Riley has been flagman.

The train which is due here at 8:10 o'clock was running about an hour late. It was in charge of conductor George H. Knott, Engineer Schriver, Fireman Spranger and Brakeman H. L. Blake. When Engineer Schriver saw Vilt on the track he applied the brakes but the train was too close to avoid striking him. When the train finally stopped the body was near the rear end of the train.

Coroner Rose and Chief of Police Kiloran were notified of the accident and were soon on the scene. The body was removed to the undertaking parlors of W. W. Williams. Coroner Rose will hold an inquest at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Vilt was sent here from the hospital for the criminal insane at Chester April 4, 1918. He was sent to the hospital for the criminal insane from Grundy county for assault with intent to kill. Since coming to Jacksonville State Hospital he has been sent out to work on a number of occasions but he had never before shown suicidal tendency. He was about 30 years of age and had a wife in Coal City.

GEORGE WHEELER THANKS VOTERS

I wish to express my appreciation for the splendid vote given me for the office of county commissioner at the election Tuesday. It is gratifying to have such an emphatic expression of confidence from the voters of the county. I wish to assure those who voted for me and those who cast their votes for my opponents that I shall give my best effort and thought to the conduct of the county's business. I will take up the duties of the office with no pledges or promises and my constant endeavor shall be to conduct county affairs along economical lines and to obtain the greatest efficiency in all departments.

Very respectfully,
GEORGE A. WHEELER.

BUY PROPERTY

Joseph Bourn has sold to the Misses Hoffman his property on East State street adjoining the plant of the Jacksonville Transfer Co. The Misses Hoffman have for many years operated successfully a lunch room near the Chicago & Alton station, and it is understood that they will erect a building on the front of the ground purchased suitable for their business. They have been for some time tenants in the building of the transfer company but changes proposed there made it necessary for them to seek a new location.

GREENE COUNTY LAD MET TRAGIC DEATH

Mrs. Clarence Reid has returned from Greene county where she went to attend the funeral of Ralph Rawlings, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rawlings. The circumstances surrounding the death were especially sad. The child, who was four years old, fell from a rail fence in such a way that his neck was broken and death was instantaneous. The very unfortunate accident happened at the family home near Roodhouse. The funeral was held in White Hall Sunday.

EAGLES PLAN WINTER CAMPAIGN

Great Changes Made in Laws of National Order.

At the regular meeting tonight of Jacksonville Aerie No. 509 F. O. E. Worthy President H. E. Johnson will give plans for a winter drive for new members. The club rooms will be fitted up for billiard tournaments, flinch and pinhole parties.

The Grand Aerie at the National convention at New Haven made many new changes in the laws of the Order, also adopted a new Ritual and Constitution. The beneficial age for members is now from 18 to 50; it was formerly 21 to 50. The election and installation of officers in all Aeries in the U. S. will be held in May and June instead of December and January.

The patriotic assessment for the Eagles that were killed in service will be discontinued sometime the first of the year. There were 37,000 Eagles in service and 666 lost their lives. The local Aerie is in fine condition and President Johnson expects a large increase in membership.

No Advancing Premiums for Wheat

D. O. Thompson, secretary of the Illinois Agriculture Association, asked the United States Grain Corporation when farmers could expect premiums advanced on wheat. The grain corporation stated that the matter was left to the discretion of the wheat director as to when the proper time was for putting in advancing premiums for wheat. The wheat director states, that in his opinion, the time has not yet arrived and the probabilities are that the necessity for it will not appear at all. In most of the western markets premiums have been ruling for certain grades of wheat and in the northwestern markets, very excessive premiums have ruled. In view of this the wheat director has not put in advancing premiums. This statement was signed by Watson S. Moore, second vice-president of the United States Grain Corporation.

Echoes from the Combination Sale.
The offerings were better than many people expected. Owing to the donation of work for putting up the tents and seats and the services of the auctioneers, the expense of the sale was kept within a five per cent limit. Another time this free service could not be expected and the expenses, in all probability, would total 10 per cent of the cost of the value of the property sold. Next season the situation ought to be right for two big days, one for Durum and the other for Poland Chinas. A third day might be arranged for other breeds. In the opinion of the breeders a live stock pavilion ought to be arranged for.

Corn Husking Price
Harry J. Rice of Arnold attended the meeting of the executive committee and in the course of his conversation, informed the county agent that Will Arnold and A. D. Arnold were getting corn husked at 5c per bushel, where board was furnished and 6c per bushel where men boarded themselves. There does not seem to be any great difficulty in getting corn huskers this fall at reasonable prices.

New Work for Farmers Elevators
Over in Champaign county all of the directors, officers and managers of farmers elevators were called in for a meeting. The object of this meeting was to get those elevators interested in handling rock phosphate and limestone for the farmers. Although it was a bad day there were 90 present. They passed a motion to the effect that it was a sense of the meeting that all the farmers elevators should put up suitable sheds and keep a supply of rock phosphate and limestone on hand for use by the farmers. They also formed a county association of farmers elevators for the purpose of handling such problems as buying potatoes, apples, etc., collectively and doing any other business of common interest.

A STANDARD SCHOOL

Is the Proud Boast of Prairie Union Five Miles Northeast of the City.

Over the door of a school building about five miles northeast of the city are the words "Standard School," and a visit to the place will demonstrate the fact to any visitor. The school is situated on a prominent highway on which many travelers pass and it is seen by a great many persons and it is a good school building, housing a good school. The lot is of ample size and the outbuildings are good and there is only about one suggestion the visitor has to make and that is that the trees in the lot are not of the best and a few elms and maples would be in order and cost only a little work and the directors will no doubt bear this in mind.

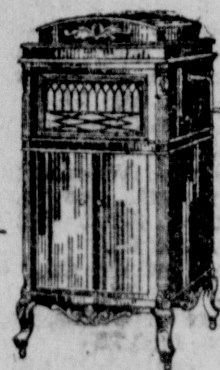

The school room is well heated and ventilated and supplied with vestibules, one for the boys and one for the girls and it is well equipped with maps, dictionary, library, pictures and furniture. The visitor missed the face of Lincoln, Miss Lela Ash, the wide-awake teacher, said they had it but the glass was broken and had not been replaced. There are other pictures and a very fair collection. Then too they have a U. S. flag conspicuously displayed and the teacher told the caller to remember that it was a standard school which is not to be forgotten.

The pupils were very bright and interesting and paid good attention to what was said and quite well in asking and answering questions. One question they were the first to answer of any school seen this fall. The little folks here also largely predominate the there are several of a larger size and all were eager to hear what was said to them. As a whole the teacher has good cause to be pleased and satisfied with her pupils.

The directors are Messrs Robert Hopper, Arthur DeOrnellas and H. L. Davies.

The pupils are: Norma Strickler, Alma Halligan, Alice DeOrnellas, Dorothy Allen, Russell DeOrnellas, Hazel Strickler, Albert Cully, Howard DeOrnellas, Ralph Cook, Martha Cook, Kenneth Crouse, Curtis Greenwood, Glen Strickler, Henry Strawn, Eugene Honner, Russel Carwell, Mary Davies, Glen Carwell, Raymond Cook, Helen Strickler, Clarence Ornellas.

Gordley Gains Thirty Pounds After Taking Tanlac—Had Suffered 20 Years.

"I have gotten rid of my twenty-three years of suffering since I commenced taking Tanlac, and more than that, I have gained over thirty pounds in weight and feel as well and strong as I ever did," said Edward Cordley, a well known painter who lives in Berwick, Ill., a few days ago.

"I don't believe anybody ever suffered any more from rheumatism and kidney trouble than I did," he continued, "and it just seemed that I would never find a medicine or treatment that would do me any good at all. The rheumatism in my arms and legs was something awful, and many times I just thought I couldn't stand the pain another minute. Then, the pain in my back right over my kidneys was mighty bad, and I finally got to where I couldn't climb a ladder to do my work, and was so weak I actually couldn't lift an eight pound bucket of paint. Added to all this, my stomach went back on me, and this trouble got so bad that if I ate a little dry toast I would suffer afterwards. I would have the worst cramping spells a man ever had, and would be so bloated up with gas I could hardly get a good breath. Finally I got to where I would be in constant pain for weeks at a time, and had to give up my work altogether.

"That was the condition I was in when I commenced taking Tanlac. Well, the first bottle made a wonderful improvement in my condition, in fact, all my friends noticed it and would remark about it. From that time on I continued to get better until now since taking about eleven bottles I am once more a sound well man. The rheumatism has left me completely, and I never have these pains in my back any more, so I guess my kidney troubles are over, too. I never had a better appetite in my life, and my stomach is in such fine condition that everything I eat agrees with me perfectly. The whole truth of the matter is, Tanlac has completely overcome all my troubles, and I am back on the job working hard every day. Now I claim that a medicine that will do that much for a man sixty years old and who had suffered for twenty-three years, is worth its weight in gold, and as long as I live I will boost Tanlac every opportunity I have."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve, in Meredosia, by Mr. R. B. Field, in Murrayville, by M. E. Gilbert, in Waverly by Wylie Drug Co., in Woodstock by The Hoy Pharmacy, in Chapin by Jno. Onken & Bro., in Alexander by Frank J. Kaiser.—Adv.

GRIP, INFLUENZA

Hamlin's Wizard Oil a Reliable, Antiseptic Preventive.

During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and snuff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against "flu" germs.

Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza. Get it from druggists for 30c. If not satisfied, return the bottle and get your money back. Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30c at druggists. Guaranteed.—Adv.

WOMEN AT WORK

During the war, millions of women have been at work in vocations into which they have never before been called—in Munition Factories, Chemical Works, Metal Works, Street Railways, and as Ambulance Drivers, Barbers, and Elevator Girls. Undoubtedly thousands of others have longed to serve in this way, but because of female ailments, which had fastened upon them, were not able to do so. Women in this condition should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and find health and strength as thousands of others have so done.—Adv.

DISCUSSES ECONOMIC SITUATION IN U. S.

Rev. E. L. Wendell, of Beards-town, formerly of White Hall, Gives Views on Present Crisis—Campaign to Encourage Tree Planting—Other News Items.

White Hall, Nov. 3.—Rev. E. L. Wendell of Beards-town, member of the railroad trackmen's union and a spokesman for that organization, comes out strongly against the action of the miners in defying the government, and comes out squarely for Frank Lowden for the presidency as meeting the demands for a strong man. Those who know the sincerity of purpose and the discerning qualities of Rev. Wendell, who grew up at White Hall and here put many a man to flight through his great ability as a debater and rapid-fire orator, will give high consideration to his latest statements on the political and industrial situation as coming from a man in the ranks of labor since America entered the war and for twelve years has voted the democratic ticket. He first engaged in railroad work as a round house laborer at Rood-house, and later went to Beards-town, where he has been in the service of the track department in various capacities. Writing from Beards-town to your correspondent under date of November 1st, he says:

"I think the economic situation is bad. The present strike situation marks a national crisis. No man can tell what will happen before it is over.

"The right to strike can not be denied. The courts have repeatedly held the doctrine that any laboring man has a right to quit work. This right can not be denied. However, the wisdom of exercising this right by the United Mine Workers organization is open to serious question, and subjects that organization to serious criticism on the part of an outraged and long-suffering public.

"Mr. Gary, the head of the steel trust, has refused to recognize the right of collective bargaining, which is a very wrong position, and to be condemned by every fair-minded man. Mr. Gary is a sample of the kind of capitalist that is helping to bring disaster, bloodshed and anarchy on this nation. Capital will have to recognize the right of collective bargaining and treat with labor.

"The coal strike is simply a high-handed attempt of a highly-paid, well-treated class of labor to dictate to the government and compel this nation to submit to their terms. The stories about destitution among the miners are fakes, in my judgment. I am familiar with conditions in the coal regions of Southern Illinois. I was pastor of a coal-mining church in 1914, and I can say that the stories of destitution and suffering among coal miners are fakes, in my judgment. In no case did I see any evidence of destitution or poverty, except where the head of the family was a heavy drinker.

"When the unions undertake to dictate to the government they exceed constituted power and become a common nuisance. This government is a government of the people, for the people and by the people, and that means the whole people, not organized labor alone. I am a loyal citizen, and expect to obey the laws and stand by the government of my country.

"We are going to have to have a strong man for president the next four years. This nation never needed Theodore Roosevelt so badly as it does now. I think Woodrow Wilson is a great man and great idealist, but he is not the man to handle the situation that will be upon us the next four years. For the last twelve years I have voted the democratic ticket, and have called myself a democrat, but I see now we need the G. O. P. power. I like the platform of Senator Poinsette, but I am for Frank Lowden for president. We must have a strong man with a united party behind him to save the nation from economic disaster and ruin.

"We are headed toward anarchy right now, and God only knows how, as a nation, we are going to get through this winter. Every authority on finance and economics at home and abroad is predicting a panic within eighteen to twenty-four months. Speculation, extravagance, waste and inefficiency are found on every side. We are continually increasing the cost of production and reducing the output. Disaster is certainly ahead of us, and it will take a strong man at the helm to bring us through.

"I have not written to you for some time. I am well, and working every day. I flagged the crossing at 15th street for a year at a salary of $69.50 per month. I quit there September 17th, and went to work on the track in the south yards. I claw the ladder at the south end of the empty yards at $3.20 per day, working eight hours. I have a good boss and a good job."

A vigorous campaign to encourage the planting of trees has been conducted for the past two years by the American Forestry Association. An article by the president, Charles Lathrop Pack, has been going the rounds of the local press of this section of the country, and the interest in this article is evidence of the importance of the subject. The writer urges the planting more particularly of ornamental shade trees, but the importance of the dwindling timber supply has its place in the work of the association. The point that brings the subject more particularly to us is the connection of the American Forestry Association with the planting and dedicating of the soldier memorial trees at White Hall in April of the present year. The event received the marked attention of the association, originators of the plan of planting trees to the memory of departed soldier boys, and through the agency of the association suggestions have been obtained and name plates provided that have insured the permanency of the White Hall memorial trees by the various organizations in charge.

The object of this article is to recall the memory of a man who has long since passed away, but who has left a memorial in the form of trees that makes his name familiar to the present generation. This man is the late Joseph Field Sr. He resided on a large body of land, his residence being located about nine miles northwest of White Hall. Through this land runs the main highway to Glasgow, Scott county, from White Hall and Patterson. In the year 1872 Mr. Field began the planting of soft maples along both sides of this highway through his farm, a distance of a little more than two miles, and the planting was completed the following year. The trees were set fifty feet apart, and formed what in after years became familiarly known in local history as Field's Lane. The trees were cultivated and given the tenderest care by Mr. Field, and they had developed an unbroken line of beautiful shade when in 1883, death claimed the most ardent tree devotee and lover this section ever knew. Ornamental shade trees were to be found here and there all over his vast farm, planted by Mr. Field with a studious taste.

Following the death of the founder of Field's Lane, the trees were attaining a size that caused these less devoted to trees to doubt the wisdom of maintaining a long line of shade that was sapping the land for a considerable distance along either side of the line. The north end of the Fields farm passed into the hands of the Sherwin estate, and for a distance of probably half a mile that much of the monument to Joseph Field Sr. became extinct. Along the west side of the remaining portion the land is at this day in the hands of Cap Field, a nephew of Joseph Field Sr., and he declares that so long as he has charge there will not be a tree removed from Field's Lane. Along the east line the situation differs only in a degree. This land is owned by another descendant, Mrs. A. B. Brennerman of Barrow, Greene county, who just at present is residing at Minneapolis where her husband has a temporary appointment. Mr. Brennerman figured that the sapping of the land along their line of Field's Lane extended inward so far that the crop loss, if it be saved, would be sufficient to pay the taxes on the entire tract. In order to bring this about Mr. Brennerman conceived the idea of thinning out the trees along his land on the east side, and this is being done. When this work was started admirers of Field's Lane became apprehensive lest the grand drive is to become a thing of the past, but Mr. Brennerman gives reassurance that such is not the case by disclosing his plan of leaving every sixth tree. This, he holds, will maintain the beauty of the drive and at the same time restore the loss to the land on account of the great size that the maples have attained.

Until another generation at least comes into possession of the adjoining land, the main structure of Greene county's most picturesque drive will be maintained as a monument to Joseph Field Sr., founder of Field's Lane and the most devoted tree lover of his day.

A Business Auto Must Be Built Expressly for Business

The Gramm-Bernstein Trucks

Conform Strictly to that Specification

The Gramm-Bernstein Trucks are built to give service—built to last—are built by the Pioneer truck makers of the world—in short, are today the world's best truck, judged by any standard. There's a size to fit your line of business.

Usual Truck Troubles and How Avoided

The value of any motor truck is determined by the amount of uninterrupted service it gives. Gramm-Bernstein trucks pay dividends. They are always on duty, out of trouble, economical to operate, and absolutely dependable.

Since a majority of all truck troubles are directly traceable to faulty transmissions and as transmission troubles are practically unknown to users of Gramm-Bernstein trucks, it can be readily seen what an unusual advantage in maintenance cost is enjoyed by the G-B user. The Gramm-Bernstein "Trouble Proof" Transmission is exactly what the name implies. It is actually as near trouble proof as it is possible for any mechanical device to be. There is no shifting of gears, for the reason that the gears are always in mesh. There can be no stripping of gears, as the teeth are never out of proper contact. This is why the gear teeth cannot "grind," "corner chip" or crack, as occurs through shifting sliding gears.

The gears while always in mesh, are idle until locked to the shaft by the powerful "dog clutches." These dogs never slip, and successfully withstand many times as much abuse in making engagement as do gear teeth.

A Gramm-Bernstein Truck is never out of service or in the repair shop because of transmission troubles, as is evidenced by the fact that the average maintenance cost of all G-B transmissions in use for a 15-month period in 1917 and 1918 was only forty cents each. Think of this when you are tempted to buy "some other truck," equipped with a sliding gear set.

Back of Gramm-Bernstein trucks stand nearly twenty years of successful pioneering and truck building experience, together with unexcelled manufacturing facilities. They are made right. That's why they make good—the world over.

Read This Firm's Opinion of Gramm-Bernsteins

Marysville, Ohio, July 16, 1919.

The Gramm-Bernstein Motor Truck Co., Lima, Ohio.

Gentlemen:

I am sending you, under separate cover, a few photographs showing my trucks in actual use. As to my results and satisfaction, the following would no doubt be of great interest to you. My one 2 1/2-ton truck is 25 months old and has made over 44,000 miles under mostly bad road conditions, and is as sweet a running outfit today as the way when purchased. I have it equipped with 36x6 pneumatic cord tires on front and find it profitable under all conditions. I am hauling sixty 10-gal. cans of fluid milk, weighing 105 lbs. each, including cans, two trips a day from West Mansfield to Marysville, which is 40 miles a round trip. This truck is making 80 miles a day and averaging 8 miles to the gal. of gas and three pints of oil to the 80 miles. You will also see two views of my 5-ton truck which was loaded with 101 cans of condensed milk, which dropped 25 ft. through a covered bridge near Galena, Ohio, which only broke body and one step iron. This truck I purchased May 26, 1917. It has made over 38,000 miles and is in perfect condition. It is operating from Sunbury to Marysville, Ohio, making 68 mile round trip, averaging at present 5 1/2 miles to the gallon of gasoline and six pints of oil per trip, also having steep hills on this run.

I have just at present installed 38x7 pneumatic cords on the front of one of my 3 1/2 ton trucks which I think will prove out very satisfactory. This truck is carrying 75 cans of milk per trip from Ridgway to Marysville, Ohio, 58 miles, averaging 6 1/2 miles per gallon of gasoline and two pints of oil. I am using one 3 1/2 ton and one 5 ton every day from Sunbury to Marysville, one 2 1/2 ton from West Mansfield to Marysville, and one 3 1/2 ton from Ridgway to Marysville and one 5 ton at Marysville hauling case goods, supplies, and etc.

It seems to be a miracle to so many people why my trucks are in operation every day, including Sunday. First of all I keep the best of drivers, pay good money, have them at all times in my confidence, daily inspections, and good service from factory.

Most every agent of a motor driven truck has interviewed me and would like to make me a good proposition to purchase one of their trucks and put it in operation for future reference, but have not as yet found any comparison.

For any further information regarding the amount of milk I haul, the service I give, write J. J. Elliott, Supt. of the Nestle's Food Company, Marysville, Ohio, or Mr. R. E. Hinthorn, Dist. Supt. Hearst Bldg., Chicago, or Mr. Frank Hysell, Supt. of Milk Supply of the Nestle's Food Company, 134 William Street, New York, N. Y.

Yours truly,
WM. J. MERZ.

Cutting the Corners

IN discussing the Standard Oil Company, a well-known lawyer said: "The underlying causes of whatever trouble this organization may have had are to be found in its efficiency and its advanced methods, which make competition difficult. As a producer and distributor of petroleum products the Standard Oil Company leads the world."

It is a matter of pride to those responsible to the 4649 stockholders that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been able to operate its business as to insure a maximum production of useful products at a minimum of cost, and it has always been the policy of the Company to sell its products to the consumer at a minimum price.

During the past five years when the industries of the world have been disorganized by war, and the cost of production has been increased tremendously, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) by reason of its advanced methods has been able to keep the price of petroleum products at so low a point that the people of America can afford to use the output of the Company in ever increasing quantities, while elsewhere in the world only the wealthy can enjoy the comforts of these commodities.

This condition has been brought about by largely increased facilities, and by careful conservation of raw materials.

Thus, in spite of tremendous increases in cost of crude oil and labor, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been able to fulfill its obligations in a manner satisfactory and beneficial to the stockholder, the employee and the public.

THE OBSERVATORY

It is the belief of many that Mack Sennett's bathing girls will be the chief sufferers from the coal strike.

A young married woman of Jacksonville fears the grocer is not being fair with her. She says she buys the same kind of coffee at the same place that Mom does, but somehow it doesn't taste like Mom's coffee.

The actions of about one-half million hard boiled soft coal miners is our principal concern just at present.

Let's see! Didn't the Allies once upon a time demand that Holland turn the Kaiser over to them for trial? Well then!

A Morgan county physician received a call from one of his elderly patients the other day demanding one "of them derned energy glands," and the physician had to admit he was not up to date and had none in stock.

The young people of Jacksonville and vicinity enjoyed many Halloween parties last week. In fact they started the first of the week and many were held each evening during the week. We failed to read however of any of the popular Halloweenie roasts being given.

Calling your attention to Christmas shopping, it is safe to say that nobody will have his Christmas egg nog this year unless he did his shopping early.

The country preachers used to pray for bright Sundays, so people would come to church. Now they hope for threatening skies, so people won't go skylarking away on long motor trips.

It is customary to say a good word for the departed, and in this connection it can be truthfully said of the lamented Mr. Booz, that no one had more enemies in public or more friends in private.

RED CROSS HOME SERVICE DEPARTMENT

Does Work of Vast Importance in Aiding Soldier and Families—War is Over But Must Stay on Job.

For persons in Morgan county, not intimately acquainted with the workings of the Red Cross Home Service department, have any conception of the size and importance of the task it has assumed. Rev. W. E. Collins, chairman of the committee in charge, estimates that at least 2,500 soldiers and soldiers' relatives have applied for help at the Red Cross headquarters.

This committee has been able to give physical comforts and necessities to many families, and to bring peace of mind to hundreds of others. Scores of soldiers have been helped in securing their release from service, in adjusting their insurance and in securing back pay.

The largest number of cases helped in any one month was 471. This was in November, 1918, during the influenza epidemic. In March of this year 205 applicants for help came to the department. At the present time applications come in at the rate of seventy-five to a hundred per month. A few cases, undertaken soon after the beginning of the war, are not closed yet.

The war is over, but the suffering it occasioned and to which the Red Cross must minister, will continue for a long time in the future. So long as the need for such help lasts, the Red Cross must stay on the job.

Give today what you can to the Jewish Relief Fund. It's a cause worthy of everyone's utmost support.

A GRAND COMMUNITY SING

All Over the Land Songs of Victory Armistice Day, Nov. 11th Patriotic Organizations in Every Direction Will Unite in the Grand Chorus—The Chaminade Club to Lead in This City.

All over our beautiful land there is a movement to celebrate grandly on armistice day with songs of victory and patriotism and all suitable kinds of music. The nation will sing.

In memory of signing the armistice.

In memory of our fallen heroes.

In memory of a victorious army.

The great national song day will be under the guidance of the National Federation of Music clubs, the community league and the great war organizations and civic association.

"Star Spangled Banner," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Lest We Forget," "Our Tribute," "Ring Out Sweet Bells of Peace," "America, the Beautiful," "Near My God to Thee" and other suitable hymns will be sung. Admission free and all invited.

Members of the Chaminade Musical club invite and urge everyone in the city to join with them in a great community sing on this day. The sing will be held probably in the Grace Methodist church with Prof. Keep of the Conservatory as director of the chorus and Professor Pearson of the Woman's College at the organ, and Mrs. J. Edgar Martin at the piano.

With one voice America will sing the same songs at the same hour all over our beautiful land. Familiar patriotic songs and hymns will be used.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE

The firm of Miller Bros. has this day been dissolved by mutual consent, William Miller retiring from the business, which will be continued by Matthew Miller.

MILLER BROS.

I have this day purchased the interest of my brother in the firm of Miller Bros. and will continue the business at the present location. All bills are payable to me and any outstanding obligation is assumed by me. I respectfully request a continuance of the generous patronage given through many years.

WARNING

Persons are hereby warned not to walk across the 45 acres pasture east of the car shops vicinity, between Walnut St. and Independence Ave. Many hogs are in the pasture and the owner fears disease may be communicated by pedestrians.

REWARD OFFERED

The City of Jacksonville offers a reward of $25 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the persons who overturned the brick pedestals at the Alexander apartments; damaged the air pump of the Illinois Tire & Vulcanizing Co., or who committed other acts of vandalism on Halloween.

E. E. CRABTREE, Mayor.

Sunday morning at the Brooklyn church Reverend Randle gave a very interesting sermon to the children on "Christ the Great Magnet." He illustrated his lecture, using a large electric magnet, showing how Christ brought the people to Him by His greatness. After the sermon Miss Trule Fisher sang a song "Cradle Song."

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

By order of the city council bids will be received by the undersigned for the construction of certain concrete sidewalks on West Walnut street. Specifications and further facts are available at the office of the city clerk. Bids will be received until 1 o'clock noon Monday, November 5, 1919.

R. L. PYATT, City Clerk.
